

Forum

on Development of an Engineering Education Program Recognized as the Global Standard

January 25, 2013 (Fri.) 13:00

Hotel Associa Toyohashi, Aichi, Japan

Language: English

As globalization expands and international competition increases in various fields, the education across national borders has become more important. Under the project of “Development of an Engineering Education Program Recognized as the Global Standard”, we have promoted the International Recognition of Quality Assurance in Higher Education and Development of an Education Program since 2009. At this forum, we report our great achievements.
