

President's Lecture

Terashima Juku

寺嶋塾

Covid-19 has imposed significant restrictions on the campus life of students, and many of you may be living your student lives with worries, confusion and anxiety. In order to overcome this situation, President Terashima would like to send his encouragement to the students and to give them an opportunity to communicate directly with him about what they should learn and experience at each stage of their lives based on his own experiences as a student. We hope you will attend.
